(54) DEVICE FOR CREATING CONTENTS PRESENTATION ORDER INFORMATION, CONTENTS-PRESENTING DEVICE AND CONTENTS PRESENTATION ORDER SYSTEM

(57)Abstract:

PROBLEM TO BE SOLVED: To realize list display of the contents in accordance with a presentation order specified by the side of a contents provider.

SOLUTION: Presentation order information, in which the presentation order in the list display is specified, is created and transmitted by a contents presentation order information creating device 100; the information is received by a presentation order information receiving part 111 of a contents presenting device 110; and a presentation list of the contents for the list display is created by a presentation list creating part 114 and stored in a presentation contents storage part 117. A contents presenting part 118 creates a link with the contents stored in a contents DB 119, based on the list and performs the list display. Thus, the list displaying of the contents in the specified presentation order becomes possible. In addition, the list display of only the contents, in consideration of likes and tastes of a user in addition to the one in the specified presentation order, is enabled by referring to filtering information, on which the likes and taste information of the user are reflected by a presentation condition comparing part 115.
